3. NESCI ESTATE WINE FARM

Fine wines, ports & liqueurs

Nesci Estate was established in 1948 by Antonio and Carmelina Nesci, when they cleared the land by hand and planted the first grape vines. Today Nesci Estate Wine Farm now has over 60 acres of vineyards, and is also home to around 100 beef cattle. The Nesci tradition of producing fine table wines, ports and liqueurs has been continued by their son Kevin.

4. EDMUND RICE COLLEGE OLIVES

Locally grown olives

Edmund Rice College has approx. 600 trees planted in 1948 with Verdale and Sevillano as the main varieties. The College olives are pickled in a secret mix of herbs and spices. Our olive oil has won awards at the Perth Royal Show and is a boutique oil with a unique flavour ideal to use as a dressing for salads or drizzled on fresh bread. Grown at the college and harvested by students and staff and sold locally, exclusive to the Chittering Visitor Centre.

Welcome to Chittering

Come and meet friendly locals and see where Perth's food originates from when you experience our Chittering Farm Flavour Trail.

Easy to find, travel along Great Northern Highway and onto Chittering Road to enjoy our beautiful Tourist Drive through the stunning Chittering Valley, discover a winery or two and then explore beyond to unearth a bounty of fresh produce from the region.

With many seasonal produce options, such as citrus, mangoes, avocados, honey, eggs, stonefruit, nuts, asparagus, goats cheese and wine there is always something flavoursome on offer direct from the farmgate.

With so much seasonal produce you may need more than one visit to appreciate the different colours and flavours of Chittering.

Visit the trails WA website at trails.wa.com.au and download the TrailsWA app from the App Store to find more trails to explore.

7. OVERSBY'S CITRUS

Locally grown citrus

Chittering area has always been renowned for producing tasty citrus and the mandarins produced by Chris and Margaret Oversby are known to be the best flavoured fruit that money can buy. Grown in the rich red soils 2 kms north of Bindoon, they are sold at the farm gate - look out for the green VW Kombi Van. Bags or boxes - some other seasonal fruits also available.

8. WOOTRA FARM

Fresh, flavoursome asparagus

Behold the Aspara-van. Colleen and Peter established their asparagus venture in 2015 with 500 crowns and this has grown to 11,000. Growing in rich Bindoon soil our aim was to produce flavoursome asparagus, picked fresh to eat fresh, limiting carbon miles. One of nature's richest sources of vitamins, minerals and fibre, a tasty and healthy food. Meet the growers, see asparagus in production and collect recipe ideas.
